

House Resolution No. 2167

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Cynthia J. “Cindy” Brinkley, who will soon step down from her position on the Harris-Stowe State University Board of Regents, where she has served with great distinction; and

Whereas, Cindy Brinkley’s exceptional leadership qualities and indefatigable efforts have resulted in the advancement of the entire Metropolitan St. Louis region in many areas of endeavor over a period of nearly a decade; and

Whereas, during that period of community-wide growth and advancement, Cindy Brinkley has served as the AT&T President in State of Missouri, Chairwoman of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, and Chairwoman of the Hawthorn Foundation, with distinction and productivity; and

Whereas, Cindy Brinkley has served on the Governing Boards of many important institutions within the Metropolitan St. Louis area, including Civic Progress, the Board of Regents of Harris-Stowe State University, and the St. Louis Zoo, as well as institutions outside the St. Louis area, including the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City; and

Whereas, in spite of the demands and rigors of the positions in which Cindy Brinkley has served with great dignity, she has never lost a deep-rooted sense of humor and perspective; and

Whereas, Cindy Brinkley has now been called by AT&T to render even greater and more far-reaching service at its headquarters in the State of Texas, by assuming new and weighty duties and responsibilities for that great company, as its new leader of Company Development, Work Force Planning, and Development;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere congratulations to Cindy Brinkley on the occasion of her promotion, with our deepest gratitude for the invaluable service she has rendered to the citizens and institutions of the great State of Missouri and particularly of the City of St. Louis and Harris-Stowe State University, with our hopes for every success and happiness in her future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Cynthia J. “Cindy” Brinkley, as a measure of our esteem.
